Children's Services Central is relaunching the Mentoring Program to engage children's services professionals in an environment that promotes the sharing of knowledge, leadership, development, career exploration and the building of capacity for Protégés.

The relunched Mentoring Program provides collaborative support facilitated by an experienced children's services professional. The aim of the program is to build the capacity of educators to provide quality care and education for children and their families.

Support is available for:

- Directors, co-ordinators and managers in rural and metro locations
- Management committees
- New owners

Please contact Children's Services Central on:
